PREP FOR MIDTERMS PART 1: WORKSHOP

This Saturday workshop (10am - 3pm) will guide students through organizing all of their first-term materials as well as preparing a study folder for each course. Even if they don't have midterms, this process will dramatically help for the end-of-year Finals prep!

Students will:

- create study folders for each class,
- identify areas of study they don't understand,
- develop questions for teacher meetings, and
- develop plans for exam preparation.

The first portion of the workshop will include sorting and filing the work for each class.

Students will create one file per test and evaluate their knowledge of the material as they build their folders.

The remainder of the workshop will be spent developing study strategies and questions for clarity when meeting with teachers.

The students should bring their test schedule, binders, loose papers, textbooks (if they are annotated), and all tests and quizzes that they can find.

PREP FOR MIDTERMS PART 2: STUDY SESSIONS

Three (up to) six-hour study sessions are included on the days of your choice:

- Sessions will take place in The StudyPro Homework Center (see link).
- Work plans created in the Workshops will be the basis of the student's work in the study sessions, guaranteeing we are "working the plan".
- Homework center coaches assist with both subject-matter help (math, English, history) as well as staying on plan with studying.
- Students can attend any 3 homework center sessions of their choosing but must register 24 hours in advance. They can stay for as long as we are open (6 hours per session):
  - Sunday - 10am - 4pm
  - Monday - Thursday: 3:30pm - 9pm
- A summary of their study work plan and the work completed will be emailed home after each session.

They will leave each study session having "worked their plan" and with an understanding of what work they have left, if any.
